A DISTINCTIVE WEDDING VENUE

Château St. Gerlach has so much to offer for the perfect wedding. The ideal location for an intimate marriage ceremony or a fabulous large-scale party, it has a choice of salons, halls, terraces and the more contemporary St Gerlach Pavilion. The opportunities are endless, particularly with good weather, when the beautiful rose garden, as well as, the orchard provide ideal outdoor venues.

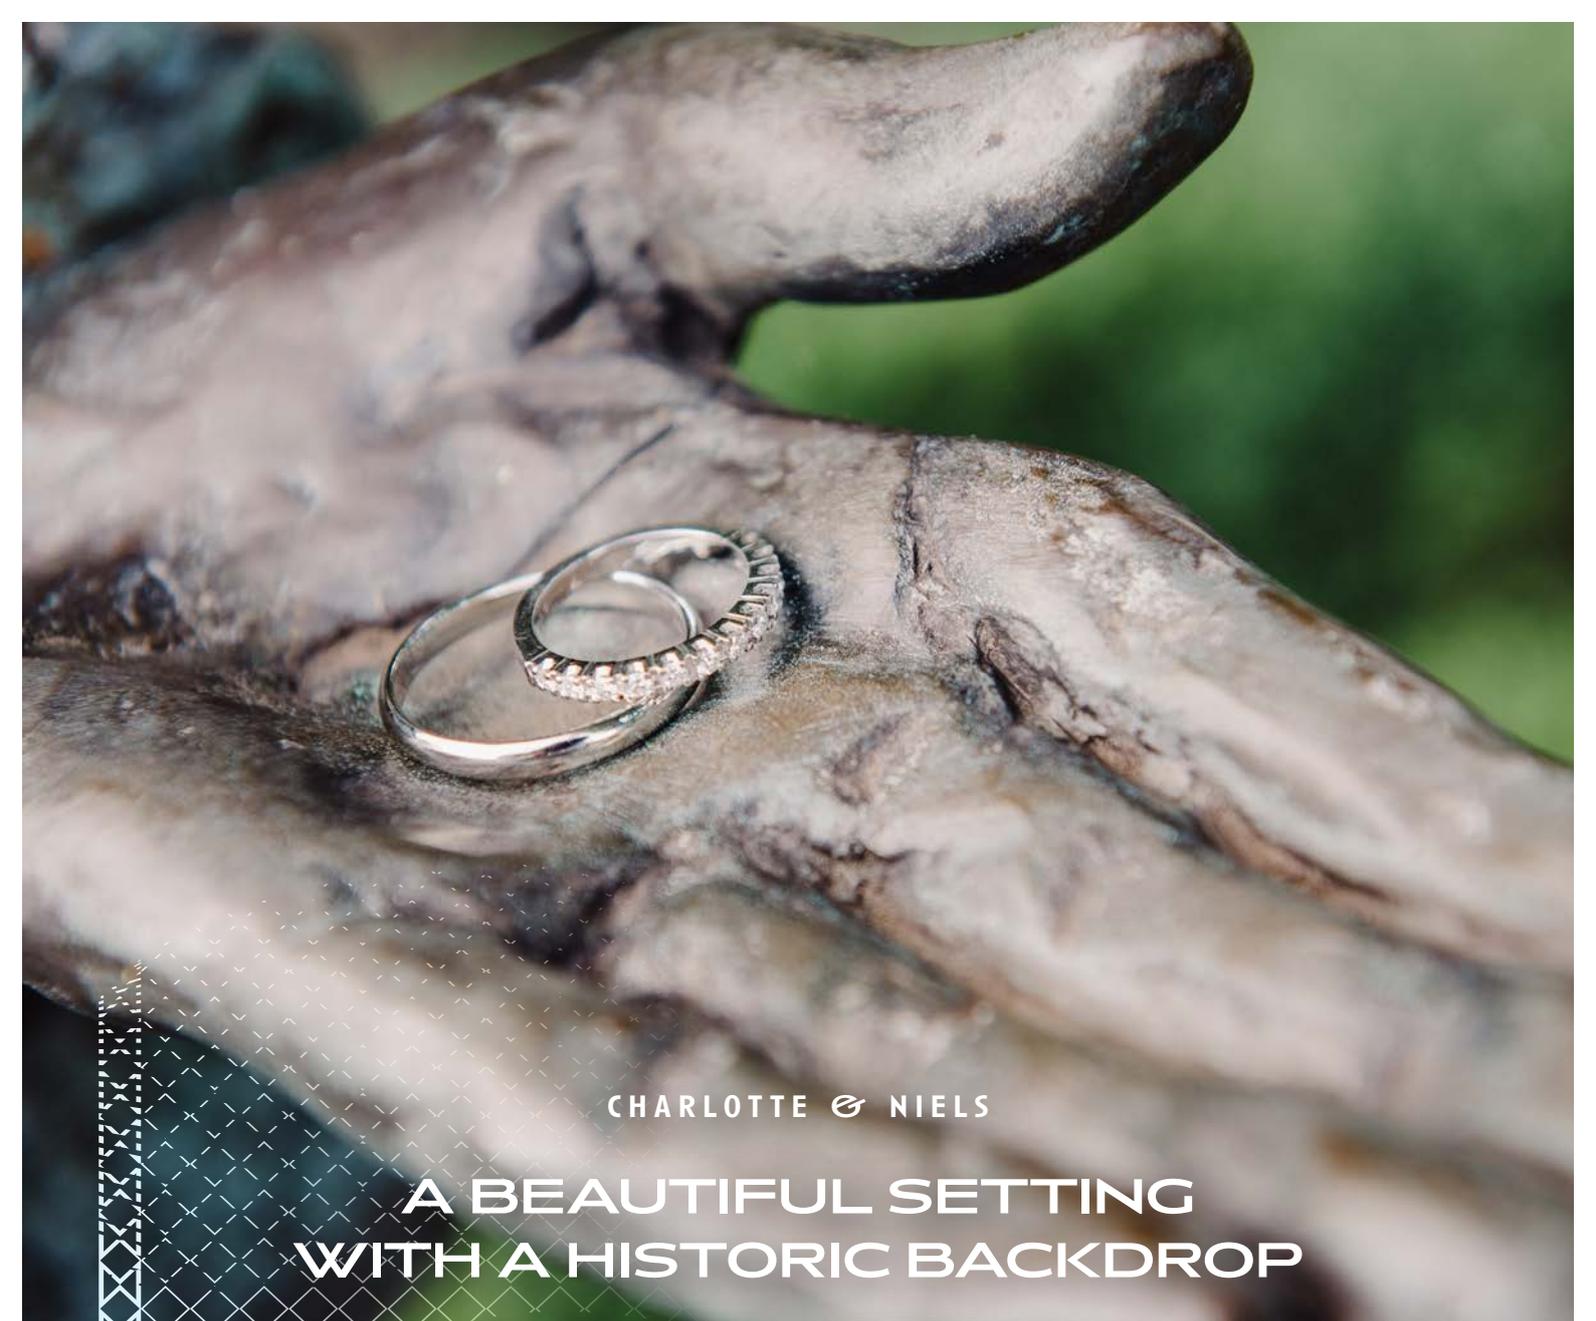

The culinary options for drinks receptions, lunch, dinner and larger parties are wide-ranging. Fresh, organic home-grown produce from the estate gardens, as well as local suppliers are used by our Chefs to create a variety of distinctive dishes. Table decorations are created from flowers, such as Lavender, specially picked from our gardens.

Near Maastricht, in the heart of the Ingendael nature reserve and in the municipality of Valkenburg aan de Geul, Château St. Gerlach is designated an official wedding location. The marriage ceremony is available to bridal couples, staying at the château and hosting their wedding party.

CHARLOTTE & NIELS

A BEAUTIFUL SETTING WITH A HISTORIC BACKDROP

BRIDE AND GROOM, CHARLOTTE AND NIELS, WERE IN COMPLETE AGREEMENT ON WHAT THEY WANTED FOR THEIR SPECIAL DAY - TO CELEBRATE SURROUNDED BY FRIENDS AND FAMILY, WHILST ALSO ENJOYING MORE INTIMATE MOMENTS WITH JUST THE TWO OF THEM. WITH ITS GRAND SPACES AND HIDDEN CORNERS, ALONGSIDE THE FACT THAT THEY COULD HAVE LEGAL AND RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES ON THE SAME DAY, CHÂTEAU ST. GERLACH, TICKED ALL THE HAPPY COUPLE'S BOXES.

When Niels proposed, Charlotte quickly accepted. "Niels jokes about how I've always wanted a princess wedding," she said. When it came to choosing the venue, Niels commented, "For me, it was the stately, long driveway that made Château St. Gerlach the first place to visit. I could imagine us arriving in a vintage car – we were both instantly hooked!"

COME RAIN OR SHINE

Although the estate's beautiful setting, encircled by nature, was a huge draw for the couple, they didn't want the day to be weather dependant. "The authentic character of the estate, large selection of classic rooms and salons and modern St. Gerlach Pavilion gave us plenty of fall-backs, in case of bad weather," explained Charlotte. "Although on the day, the weather gods were in a good mood!"

LEGAL AND RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES

Charlotte & Niels wanted a church wedding, with a legal ceremony on the same day, “two wedding dates weren’t an option for us,” said Charlotte. As a licensed venue, Château St. Gerlach, presented the perfect option, allowing the couple to exchange vows in front of close family and witnesses in the cosy Karel de Stoute Salon. “Between the legal and religious services, we hosted a small drinks reception for our family on the terrace. I remember the delicious finger foods, but also my nerves in advance of the religious ceremony!” Balancing intimate moments with grand gestures, Charlotte and Niels invited all their friends to join them in church for the big event, “I will never forget the moment I entered St. Gerlachus Church on the arm of my father – everyone turned to look at me and I saw Niels waiting at the altar.”

RAISING A GLASS TO THE NEWLYWEDS

Following the grand, church ceremony all the guests gathered on the picturesque terrace to cut the cake and toast the bride and groom. Charlotte and Niels took advantage of this moment to have photos taken around the estate and spend some time to refresh in the honeymoon suite.

AN INTIMATE DINNER FOLLOWED BY A BIG PARTY

The newlyweds decided to host a stylish dinner for 40 family members in the Château. Niels said, "We deliberately chose to stagger our guest list, so we could spend quality time with our closest relatives, but also party with all our friends. And we succeeded!"

From the moment the band struck up in the St. Gerlach Pavilion and we had our first dance, the dancefloor was in full swing. The suggestion to serve dessert in St. Gerlach Pavilion allowed dinner to effortlessly flow into the party and meant all our guests could enjoy the music."

A DREAM COME TRUE

Charlotte commented, "talking about it just doesn't do it justice. From the dishes made using ingredients from the estate grounds and the looks on our guests' faces, to waking up together as husband and wife in the fairy-tale Tower Suite. We'll always remember having breakfast on the terrace, reminiscing about arriving at the venue in a vintage car - I never dared to dream that the day would be so memorable." ♦

I NEVER DARED TO DREAM THAT THE DAY WOULD BE SO MEMORABLE.
