With its magnificent country setting, terraced aspect and landscaped Baroque gardens, Château Neercanne makes an ideal backdrop for weddings. Overlooking panoramic views across the Jeker Valley, it straddles two countries – Belgium and The Netherlands and offers a unique setting, high up on a spectacular outdoor terrace, for an unforgettable wedding day.

The venue offers a range of exciting possibilities for intimate gatherings and large-scale celebrations – from the Michelin-starred Restaurant Château Neercanne and atmospheric lunch venue l'Auberge, to the historic Turret De Gulden. The castle has two beautifully appointed salons and the unique Marl Caves that can host anything from 10 to 1,000 guests. A multi-functional venue, Château Neercanne is the ideal location for celebrating a wedding ceremony and holding the reception, special dinner, drinks party or lunch.

For those requiring overnight stays, we offer a range of accommodation at both the Kruisherhotel Maastricht and Château St. Gerlach.

Our team at Château Neercanne is on hand to help organise the perfect wedding day, tailored around individual, personal taste. Recommendations for florists, pastry chefs, bands, DJs, photographers, and more, are available, ensuring a beautiful day, full of love and happiness.

MARTA & TIM

THE DESTINATION WEDDING

SPANISH MARTA AND LIMBURGIAN TIM INITIALLY WANTED TO GET MARRIED ABROAD, BUT LATER DECIDED TO HOLD THE WEDDING IN THE NETHERLANDS SO THAT MARTA'S FAMILY AND FRIENDS COULD EXPERIENCE THE COUNTRY SHE NOW CALLS HOME. MONUMENTAL CHÂTEAU NEERCANNE, WITH ITS BREATHTAKING VIEWS OF THE JEKER VALLEY COMBINED THE DESTINATION ASPECT THEY WERE SEARCHING FOR WITH CLASSIC BUTCH CHARACTERISTICS.

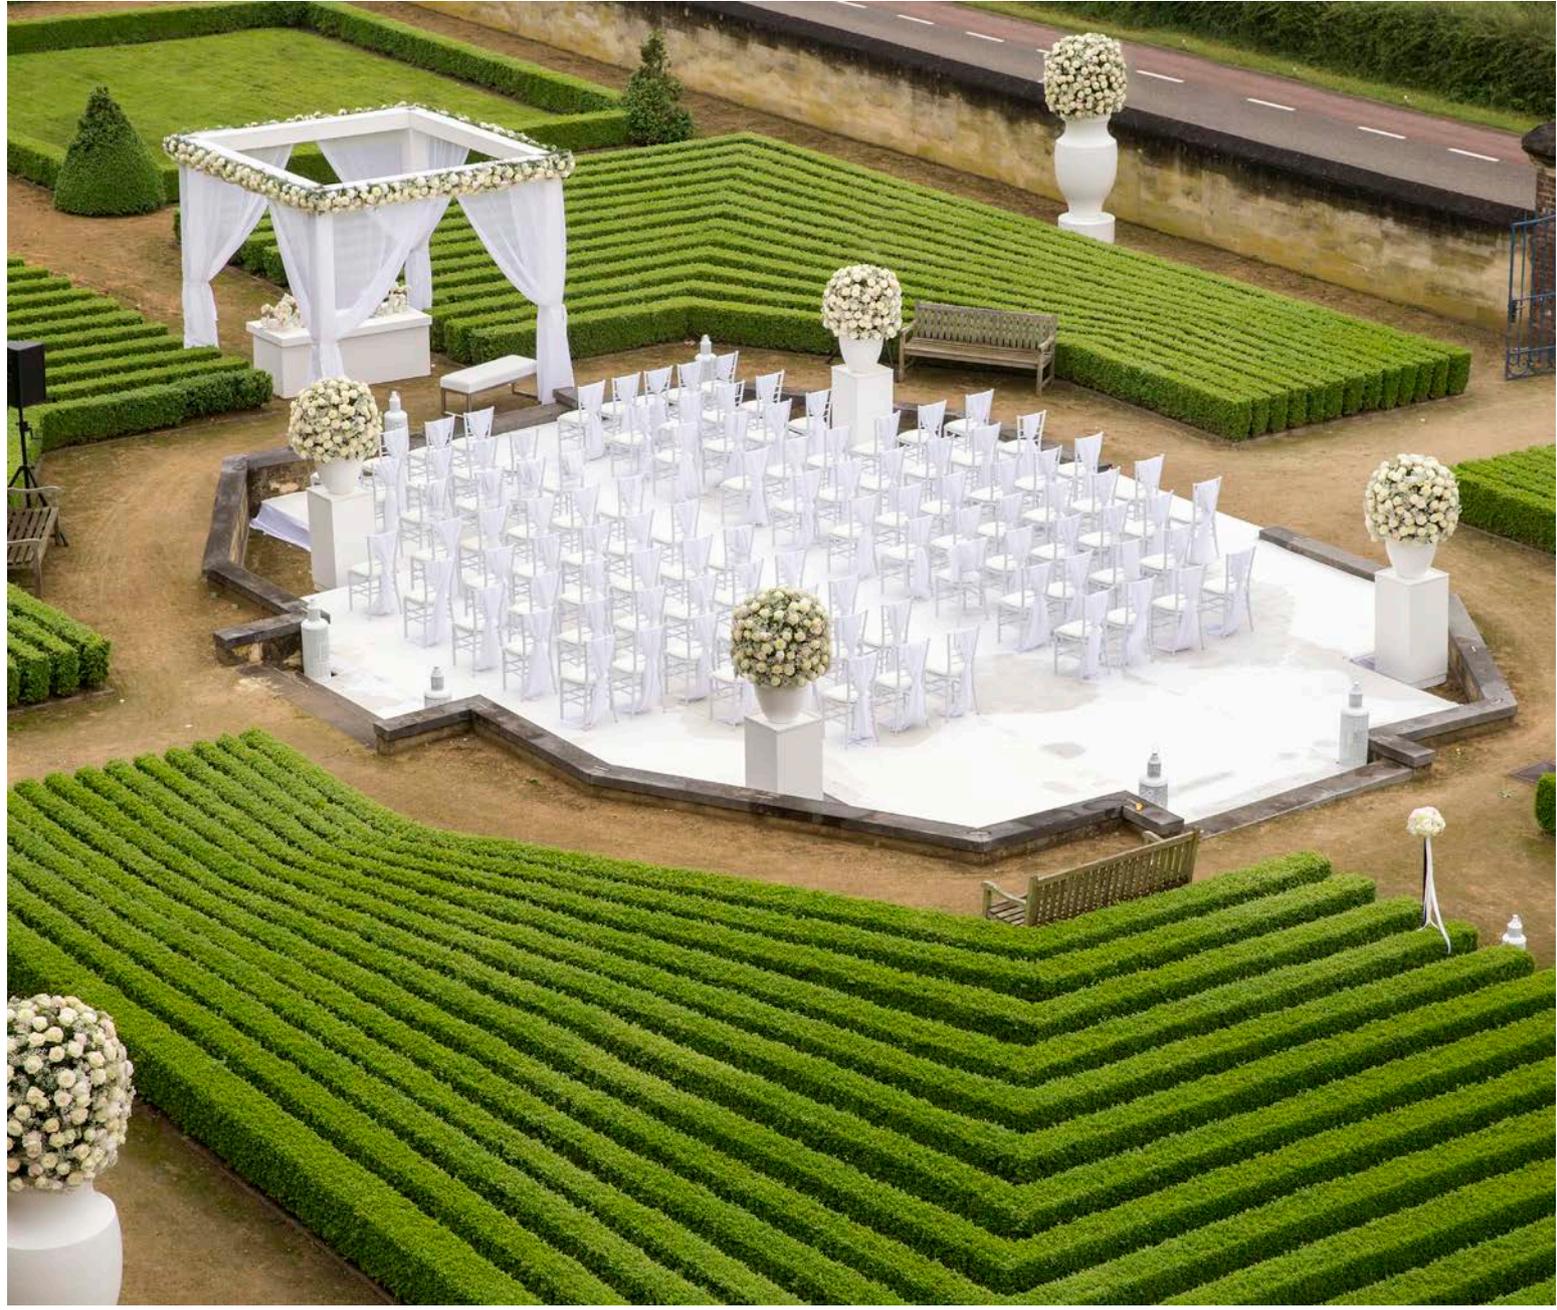

"We were looking for a venue where we could celebrate the whole day and that could host both the legal ceremony and party," says Marta, "and Château Neercanne's versatility ticked all our boxes." Whilst flicking through her wedding album she continued, "We both instantly fell in love with the area. It has a really foreign vibe and Tim felt that the team would have lots of experience hosting international guests." Tim added, "We wanted to completely enjoy our day without having to worry that our guests weren't being looked after enough. But we needn't have been concerned! The team went above and beyond to accommodate and it was such a beautiful day."

PODIUM OF SURPRISE

Guests made a stylish entrance via the stairway of the Baroque gardens to the castle terrace, before being ushered into one of the château's classically designed, private rooms for the official ceremony, overseen by a municipality registrar.

CHEERS TO THE BRIDE AND GROOM!

Following the exchange of vows, everyone moved back outside, onto the sunny terrace to raise a glass to the newlyweds. Whilst guests mingled and slowly made their way over to the Marl Caves for the cake cutting ceremony, the bride and groom had photographs taken in and around the beautiful castle grounds.

THE WEDDING CAKE

"We initially considered saying 'I do,' in the atmospheric wine cellar until Cor of Château Neercanne suggested serving the wedding cake there instead. Looking back, the whole day fitted together so well – exchanging vows within the historic castle walls, the toast on the terrace and the amazing wine cellar as a surprise element. After we cut the cake, the Château Neercanne team took over, being intuitive, proactive and understanding is something they really excel at."

DINNER AND PARTY

The celebratory banquet for friends and family took place in Carrière Poswick – an amazing cave room that offers several possibilities. In order to balance formal dining and more casual speeches, Marta and Tim opted for a combination of sit-down dinner and buffet. Following the gourmet feast, the group moved to the adjoining cave which had been transformed with a huge party in mind. Everything had been arranged so that the couple had nothing to worry about, from the hiring of the DJ, to the serving of delicious cocktails and finger food. The bride and groom took to the floor for the first dance and then the party really got started.

THE WEDDING NIGHT

At the end of the festivities, the guests waved off the happy couple, to nearby Kruisherhotel Maastricht, where they stayed in the opulent honeymoon suite.

The guests who travelled from afar left the party on specially arranged shuttle buses, that whisked them off to five-star Kruisherhotel Maastricht where they enjoyed a relaxing night's sleep on comfortable designer beds. ♦
