A CHARMING WEDDING VENUE

Located just outside Maastricht in the Strijthagerbeek valley, the 16th century country estate, Winseleerhof is a traditional farmhouse, with inner courtyard, offering a unique historic wedding venue with a casual atmosphere.

An ideal venue to host a spectacular wedding, Winseleerhof has a charming inner courtyard and beautifully renovated hay barn that provide a romantic setting and unique backdrop for this celebration. Whether looking to organise a small intimate ceremony or a large-scale wedding, there are a number of elegant salons, including the characterful Rome Room and dining options, such as Luigi's Lunch Restaurant & Bar and Restaurant Pirandello offering endless possibilities. Winseleerhof provides a charming location for an unforgettable wedding day, where drinks receptions, lunch, dinner or buffet can be arranged, all with an Italian twist.

Designated as an official wedding location by the municipality of Landgraaf, Winseleerhof can officiate for bridal couples staying at the hotel or celebrating their marriage with a reception, dinner or party at the farmhouse.

Offering 49 luxurious guestrooms and suites, Winseleerhof is available for exclusive use.

Our team at Winseleerhof is on hand to help organise the perfect wedding day, tailored around individual, personal taste. Recommendations for florists, pastry chefs, bands, DJs, photographers, and more, are available, ensuring a beautiful day, full of love and happiness.

JULIA & SANDER

A CASUAL WEDDING WITH ITALIAN ELEGANCE

WHEN LIMBURGIAN SANDER PROPOSED TO HIS BELOVED JULIA, THEY WERE CERTAIN OF ONE THING, ALTHOUGH THEY HAD LIVED IN AMSTERDAM SINCE THEY WERE STUDENTS, WHEN IT CAME TO TYING THE KNOT, LIMBURG WAS THEIR FIRST CHOICE.

High on their wish list was a venue that could offer an overnight stay and after experiencing Winselerhof's rustic 16th-century atmosphere and delicious Italian cuisine, they were sold.

Sander commented, "Julia's originally from Arnhem, but is always the one to suggest a weekend in Limburg when we want to escape the hustle and bustle of Amsterdam. She just loves the peace and Limburgian way of life. The 'country feel' became the basis for our wedding." Julia went on to say that it was "a charming farmhouse surrounded by nature and definitely, love at first sight! The elegant inner courtyard only served to confirm how I felt." "Another important thing for me was that Winselerhof is licensed as an official wedding venue," added Sander.

BY NATURE AND DEFINITELY, LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT!

THE BIG DAY

The bride spent the night before the wedding in Winselerhof's charming Junior Suite, just off the pretty inner courtyard. Whilst she prepared for the big day, the groom and his witnesses got ready in one of the hotel's private salons. The couple chose to exchange vows in the classically appointed Rome Room, however Winselerhof also offers the opportunity to get married outside, in the farmhouse grounds or rustic courtyard.

suite to refresh, Julia and Sander then joined the wedding party at Restaurant Pirandello for the reception. Against the backdrop of the vineyard, the traditional, tiered wedding cake was cut, followed by plenty of photographic opportunities framed by Strijthagerbeek valley and the inner courtyard, providing lasting memories.

SPEECHES

The couple chose an elegant banquet-style dinner in the beautiful Rome Room to further celebrate their happy day. Refined Italian-inspired dishes were served as speeches were delivered by friends and family.

THE FIRST DANCE

Sander confessed that, in order to ensure a wonderful first dance, both he and Julia had taken dance classes, which were great fun and where “we laughed a great deal. It meant that when that special moment arrived we took to the floor, and had a successful dance and there were definitely no left feet!”

THE WEDDING NIGHT

As the couple retired for the night to the Junior Suite, after midnight, their guests took to their beds in luxurious vaulted-ceilinged rooms. As the sun rose, a fine breakfast buffet was prepared for friends and family to enjoy, after an unforgettable day. ♦
